LAST EDITION.

It will probably remain fair the next 24 hours.

Yesterday's Suspension is Followed by Another To-Day.

The Stock Board Adjourns in a State of Excitement.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 27.—The California National Gold Bank and Trust Company, which had paid out all its gold before closing yesterday, announced its suspension at the opening hour this morning. No statement is made, but it is understood that depositors will be paid in full when cash can be realized on the bank's securities.

The California Stock Board met this morning. From the first the greatest uneasiness and confusion prevailed, and it was decided to adjourn till the excitement passed away.

There is this morning the greatest confusion and excitement in all business and financial circles.

ANOTHER TEMPORARY CLOSE.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 27.—The Merchants' Exchange Bank closed its doors this morning. The Directors have prepared the following notice for the afternoon papers:

In consequence of the excitement and disappointment in getting coin, the directors deem it for the best interest and to the benefit of all not to open our doors for the present.

The Secretary states the bank has $100,000 in coin on hand; the amount liable for deposits is $800,000, but against that may be $400,000 in notes. The bank is perfectly solvent, and the only trouble is the lack of coin.

GOLD COMING.

Heavy transfers of gold from Washington are being made by the Treasury, to-day, in the support of the banks, upon official notice being received from the Department that agents of the banks have deposited gold with the Assistant Treasurer at New York. Telegraphic instructions have been received by the Assistant Treasurer here, placing credit to the respective banks making such deposits in New York. Thus far over a million dollars have been transferred.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 27.—The Bank of California closed its doors yesterday, and the officers say that no attempt will be made to recommence business again.

The following announcement was made: "OFFICE BANK OF CALIFORNIA, August 26, 1875.

"The Trustees are under the painful necessity of stating to customers of the bank and the public that the bank is compelled to suspend business. At this moment, and without reports from the agencies, we are not prepared to make a statement as to the situation of the bank, but are now examining its interests critically, and will at the earliest possible moment make a definite report."

"S. F. RANKIN, Secretary."

The general feeling about town yesterday is rather gloomy. The cashier of the National Gold Bank and Trust Company stated to a gentleman, who interviewed him yesterday, that the bank would open in the morning, but might have to suspend during the day. This bank paid out all its gold yesterday afternoon, and a good deal of silver. It was expected that the bank would open in the morning, but might have to suspend during the day. This bank paid out all its gold yesterday afternoon, and a good deal of silver. It was expected that the bank would open in the morning, but might have to suspend during the day.

A run is expected on the San Francisco and Merchants' Exchange banks.

A meeting of Bank Presidents was held last evening to concert measures of relief. The Board of Bankers have also called a meeting.

What the New York Press has to Say About It.

New York, August 27.—The morning papers editorially to-day refer briefly to yesterday's failure in San Francisco.

The Herald says the failure of the Bank of California is one of the most startling financial events of the season. Both as a political and commercial power this institution exercised great influence, and the effect of the failure upon the interests of the Pacific slope must be immense.

It is to be hoped, however, that the disaster will lead to the adoption of sounder business principles on the Pacific coast than has been the rule in the past, and though much suffering will necessarily be the result, the lesson can hardly fail to be a salutary one.

The World considers the failure a serious affair, and though no serious runs on the other banks are reported, and the public has manifested neither panic nor irritation, the gravity of the occasion is sufficiently indicated by the San Francisco dock exchange. It was expected to hear that many stocks and gigantic private enterprises have been the principal cause of the suspension, and that its effect will be felt in politics as well as in financial circles throughout the Pacific coast.

The Tribune editorial is brief and hopeful. It says the announcement of the suspension of the bank of California will occasion a shock of surprise as it has been regarded as among the wealthiest Banking Companies in the country. It is hoped, however, that its liabilities will be fully met.

The bank had connections with many foreign houses, and was largely interested in the Asiatic trade and exchange. Its power in California and Nevada affairs has been enormous. Outside of the Pacific slope its suspension need not seriously affect the current of business.

The Times says the failure of the bank of California will create much consternation in San Francisco and throughout the Pacific States and Territories. It was a bank of deposit and discount organized under State laws. Directly or indirectly almost every industrial project of any note there was connected with it.

The famous Palace Hotel of San Francisco, an enormous structure, is among the speculative ventures of Mr. Ralston, the President of the bank, he having purchased the interest in that concern of his sole partner, Senator Sharon, of Nevada.

The Brooklyn anchorage of the East river bridge is completed. Cable-making for the bridge will commence at once.

New York.

The Value of New York State—Beecher-Tilton Trial.

New York, August 27.—The valuation of property in the State of New York at large is $1,900,000,000.

Beecher's counsel have as yet paid no attention to the notice sent them by Tilton's counsel, regarding the new trial of the suit. They are, it is understood, awaiting the action of the Brooklyn City Court in appointing a day for the hearing of the case, which will be called in the September Term. Thomas G. Shearman is expected home from Europe in the early part of September, in time to participate in the trial should it proceed.

New York, August 27.—A movement is on foot here for the formation of a new political party on a greenback basis.

New York, August 27.—The propeller Comet and steamer Manitoba collided near Fort Point last night. The Comet was sunk. She had twenty persons on board; ten of them were saved, including the captain and mate, and the others all went down with the steamer.

LOSERS BY THE BALTIMORE FAIR.

New York, August 27.—It is stated on Wall street that a large banking house in that street loses $300,000 by the failure of the sugar importers, Sterling, Ahrens & Co., of Baltimore.

President Grant will be the guest of Senator Conkling, at the meeting of the Army of the Cumberland, at Utica, September 10th and 11th.

More Horrors.

DOINGS IN THE CHEROKEE NATION.

St. Louis, August 27.—News was received here last night of two terrible tragedies in the Indian Territory. John Hatcher, a Cherokee of the Coconocowee District, while sitting in his door holding his horse by the bridle, was approached by a colored desperado named Howard, who, without saying a word, struck Hatcher a tremendous blow on the head with a heavy piece of timber torn from a wagon seat. The blow frightened the horse, which dashed off, dragging him of a considerable distance at full speed, lacerating his body in a horrible manner. The murderer followed him up and beat him to death with a club, mashing his skull.

Last Thursday, in the Linn District, a lady named Jones, who was a prominent witness in a murder case soon to come up for trial, was brutally murdered by ruffians. It is supposed that the purpose of the murder was to get her out of the way as a witness.

Summer Pastimes.

REGATTA PRIZES.

SARATOGA, N. Y., August 27.—The presentation of prizes to winners of Regatta took place in the ball room of the Grand Union Hotel last evening. The prizes were ranged in front of the stage, and the victors sat behind them.

An address was delivered by President White, of Cornell University, in which he said, that although he belonged to the first club of Yale College that ever sent a challenge for a boat race, the present race was the fairest and good feeling on the part of all the contestants, and thought it a good thing to have the muscle as well as the mind educated. Herebefore, many men went from college to college, who were like ships going to sea with strong machinery but rotten hulks.

The prizes were then presented to the several victors by Mr. D. G. Ritchie, after which Mr. Estlin, of the Athletics, and Mr. Courtney, the winner of the single scull race, made a few remarks.

WRESTLING.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 27.—The wrestling match for $2,000, between Jas. Mallard, of San Jose, and Homer Lane, of New York, was won by Lane. They wrestled collar and elbow, best two in three, for $1,000 a side.

BOATING.

MADISON, Wis., August 27.—The boat race between the Madison and Milwaukee crews was a very pleasant affair. The water was very rough for both races. The race last night on Lake Monona was won by the Madison boys, the Milwaukee boat filling with water when two-thirds on their course. The Madison boat came in with their boat two-thirds full of water. The race on Lake Mendota yesterday afternoon between the crews, was won by the Milwaukee club, the Madison club breaking an oar when only a quarter mile on the course. The Milwaukee boys pulled over the course, making it in just twenty minutes. The Madison crew, however, pulled their Milwaukee crew goes home highly pleased with their visit.

This Means Business.

LONDON, August 27.—An official dispatch from the British Minister at Peking received this morning announces that the English foreign fleet is assembling at Chefoo and will await orders. Unless China offers prompt and satisfactory explanation for the insult to the British Minister, war will be commenced.

Corn in Illinois.

SPRINGFIELD, ILL., August 27.—For several days past the weather has been dry, and farmers say the corn is rapidly withering.

Grasshoppers Again.

DENVER, COL., August 27.—It is learned that the grasshoppers are again committing great damage in some parts of the West. About Boulder the pests have come out of the canons and eaten up nearly everything green, and are also laying their eggs, so that next season the trouble will be as bad as it was this.

Iowa Crops.

CHARITON, IOWA, August 27.—The following may be given as the condition of the crops in this county: Wheat almost a failure; oats, heavy; rye, good; hay, splendid and secured in good shape; no frost as yet, and, with favorable weather, the corn crop will be about the average.
